COACH'S AWARDS - COMMENTS

St Annes - Verity Deane

Immie Kirby

Your work ethic and determination will get you very far in life. Immie, you will achieve good things. Well done!

Andrew James

With hard work comes great rewards! Congratulations Andrew on proving that you can overcome so much when you put your mind to it!

St Johns - Kelvin Mumford

Michael Brunkhorst You have grown mentally stronger and started to push yourself. Your attendance and commitment is superb. You are congratulated on your club gala results throughout the season.

Luca-Jean Lauer Your progress has been amazing to watch. Starting the season unable to swim a full length and ending the season being able to adequately swim full lengths in all 4 strokes and competing in Club Night Gala events. This is an outstanding achievement.

GHS - Sheralee Jolliffe Cathro

Rebecca Summersgill Is a non- competitive swimmer who trains hard, comes to training in good spirits and helps oversee the juniors and non-competitive swimmers in the water.

Jemma Pillay For dedication, working hard while at training and always having that special smile.

Seranté Subramanian She has worked really hard at training this year, with a positive attitude and a smile.

Cordwalles - Mandy Wheeler

Damien Pretorius For Improvement and always trying your hardest in training.

Chase Maclou Your first season of competitive swimming. Started as a SALGA swimmer to making Level 3 times despite aging up just before Levels in your first season. Keep working hard.

Cameron Gevers For dedication and hard work and a great attitude to better yourself. You are always willing to try.

Qwyn Francis An excellent first season of competitive swimming. Placing in the top 10 in every stroke in KZN in your age group. That is an amazing achievement.

Hilton College - Mandy Wheeler

Kamogelo De Almeida	For dedication and hard work and a great attitude. You travel all the way from Michael House twice a week and I have never heard you moan once. Keep it up.
Georgina Francis	For improvement and always giving of your best in training. Keep on trying hard and it will all work out.
Paige Williams	For improvement in your stokes and wanting to do better. Hard work pays off. This resulted in you being an age group winner at you interhouse school gala.

Congratulations to all our swimmers, it has been a fantastic season. Keep up the hard work and training.
